WORD Christchurch is a charitable trust that presents the South Island's largest international festival of literature and ideas. We also present a variety of literary events throughout the year with international and New Zealand authors. We need your help.

Our objective: to bring the community together through their love of words in all their forms. Join the family by becoming a patron or supporter and help to bring the best writers and speakers to Christchurch, from around New Zealand and the world, to inform, entertain and inspire adults and children alike.
